

Little Henderson Oscar has been sick for a week.

Mrs. Angie Langan and Mrs. Win. Price will arrive from St. Louis this week.

W. W. Dugan, of Moonville, was a recent guest of Dr. John H. Hall and wife.

Mr. Robert Vandy, of Sedalia, was the guest of Judge Sparks and family Sunday.

Miss Mary Hawley, of Sedalia, arrived Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. J. W. Sparks.

Miss Edith Lamkin left Wednesday for a visit to Miss Edith Smith at Keeler Springs.

Mrs. P. F. Allen left this week for a visit to Mrs. A. Neumann at Clay Center, Kansas.

The friends of Miss Angie Thorpe are well aware now that she is very much better.

Miss Phoebe, of Hillsboro, Texas, made a long time literary visit to her relatives living in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Harrison attended the Marionville-Garrison wedding at Swiss Springs Wednesday evening.

Dr. Hedges and Miss Eddie Davis and Eugene Davis and wife soon coming to the country with friends.

Mrs. S. M. Taylor and daughter Alice recently visited Saturday from an extended trip to Mrs. G. W. Campbell of Kansas City.

Posture Land

You may be sure to succeed in getting choice and healthy grass land if you buy one of our one-acre lots. $100 down and good start right away. Enclosed find detailed information.

Yours truly, W. C. Tamm.

THE DODGE CITY STETSON'S STORE

Whence Richard T. Horner's and Douglass' horses got their names in their last race at Louisville, May 18th, 1899, is a mystery, and especially in view of the fact that the Horsemen of America, Inc., is the author of the Horserace of Spring County.

Richard T. Horner, a native of New York, N. Y., in those days, was the noted Horserace horse in the State. Last quarter of century, he was the best horse in the country.

He was a dark bay, and had a white blaze on his forehead.

He was a fast runner, and was a good jumper, and was a good rider, and was a good horse.

He was a good horse,

and was a good horse,